Experience History Firsthand
Explore the historic Peddler’s Mills and Strawser’s Corner on Historic Peddler’s Mill Road. Matches the environment of Washington’s era and offers a unique view of the area’s history and culture. The area also includes several historic sites and landmarks along the 20-mile Delaware River Scenic Byway.

Take in Local Culture
Visit the historic Stroudsburg Street Market, the oldest in the state, and enjoy live music performances at the main stage that is open daily throughout the summer.

Enjoy Outdoor Recreation
Take a hike at one of the many state parks, including Washington Crossing State Park, which offers a variety of trails for all fitness levels.

Places to Visit
Washington Crossing State Park, Trenton
Visit the site where George Washington landed and fought the Battle of Trenton. The park offers a variety of trails for hiking and biking.

For further information:
www.delawareriverbyway.org
www.byways.org

Acknowledgements
Delaware River Scenic Byway was designated as a National Scenic Byway by the Federal Highway Administration on May 19, 1996. The Byway is managed by the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission.

America’s Byways
Published 2012

The Peddler’s Mills in Stroudsburg were established in the late 18th century and served as a hub for trade and commerce in the region. The Stroudsburg Street Market is another historical site located in Stroudsburg, offering visitors a glimpse into the local culture.

Sights and Sounds
Discover the history at Stony Brook State Park, where remains of the last bridge are visible. Explore the beautiful landscapes and prepare for a thrilling ride on the Peddler’s Mill Road.

Ribbons of Heritage
The Delaware River Scenic Byway is a picturesque route that offers visitors a journey through history, culture, and nature. The Byway features a variety of landmarks and attractions that highlight the region’s rich history, such as the Peddler’s Mills and Strawser’s Corner. These sites are located along the 20-mile route that stretches from Delaware River to Trenton.

Delaware River Scenic Byway
Welcome to Delaware River Scenic Byway

Delaware River Scenic Byway
The Byway is a 20-mile route along the Delaware River that offers visitors a journey through history, culture, and nature. The Byway features a variety of landmarks and attractions that highlight the region’s rich history, such as the Peddler’s Mills and Strawser’s Corner. These sites are located along the 20-mile route that stretches from Delaware River to Trenton.

Experience History Firsthand
Explore the historic Peddler’s Mills and Strawser’s Corner on Historic Peddler’s Mill Road. Matches the environment of Washington’s era and offers a unique view of the area’s history and culture. The area also includes several historic sites and landmarks along the 20-mile Delaware River Scenic Byway.

Take in Local Culture
Visit the historic Stroudsburg Street Market, the oldest in the state, and enjoy live music performances at the main stage that is open daily throughout the summer.

Enjoy Outdoor Recreation
Take a hike at one of the many state parks, including Washington Crossing State Park, which offers a variety of trails for all fitness levels.

Places to Visit
Washington Crossing State Park, Trenton
Visit the site where George Washington landed and fought the Battle of Trenton. The park offers a variety of trails for hiking and biking.

For further information:
www.delawareriverbyway.org
www.byways.org

Acknowledgements
Delaware River Scenic Byway was designated as a National Scenic Byway by the Federal Highway Administration on May 19, 1996. The Byway is managed by the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission.

America’s Byways
Published 2012

The Peddler’s Mills in Stroudsburg were established in the late 18th century and served as a hub for trade and commerce in the region. The Stroudsburg Street Market is another historical site located in Stroudsburg, offering visitors a glimpse into the local culture.

Sights and Sounds
Discover the history at Stony Brook State Park, where remains of the last bridge are visible. Explore the beautiful landscapes and prepare for a thrilling ride on the Peddler’s Mill Road.